

Internships

2019

Attract, Engage, Inspire, LLC is offering internships that provide opportunity for continuous growth and development. Internships are unpaid, but provide tools, resources, opportunities and connections for advancement both personally and professionally.

Marketing

Marketing interns will be responsible for brand management, inbound and outbound marketing, public relations and event marketing. Responsibilities include Content Development, Social Media, E-Marketing, Outbound calling, Networking, Event Development and Management.

Design and Graphics

Design and graphic interns will be responsible for design of marketing collateral, Power Point slides and imagery, social media images, design of online and offline learning resource materials.

Technology and Tools

The Technology and Tools interns will be responsible for learning, mastering and utilizing tools that are core to the daily operations of the business and recommending new tools that can internal efficiencies and overall customer experience. Existing tools Kajabi, Zoom, MailChimp.

Director of Administration, Finance, and Lifestyle

Seeking a master of time management, someone who can oversee all aspects of scheduling, invoicing, finance, and lifestyle management. This person will play an essential role in maintaining harmony between operations of business and lifestyle.

Part-Time and Full-Time Internships are available. These are remote-working positions.

Attract, Engage, Inspire, LLC provides Mentoring and Training in Personal Growth and Leadership Development, to individuals, businesses, non-profits, and schools.

For further details regarding internship opportunities, or to submit your resume, please contact Jenna at: Jenna@AttractEngageInspire.com .